

IDAHO INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR DONATIONS TO EDUCATIONAL CHARITIES

The State of Idaho allows you to give monetary contributions to certain educational and cultural organizations (such as the University of Idaho Foundation) while reducing the amount of Idaho income tax you owe.

- This is a tax credit you can take even if you don't itemize.
- Tax credits reduce the amount of taxes owed dollar for dollar.
- You can even claim this tax credit if the contribution is made from your Donor Advised Fund or as a Qualified Charitable Distribution from your Individual Retirement Account.

You can claim the credit on your Idaho income tax return for the year you made the contributions.

- For C and S corporations, the law limits the yearly credit to the smallest of the following:
 - $5,000.
 - 10% of total income tax or franchise tax owed for the year.
 - 50% of the amount donated.
- For all other businesses, individuals and entities (such as estates and trusts), the law limits the yearly credit to the smallest of the following:
 - $500 per taxpayer ($1,000 total for married individuals filing jointly).
 - 50% of total income tax (for example, the amount on Form 40, line 21, for Idaho resident individuals).
 - 50% of the amount donated.
