

IRA Qualified Charitable Distributions

See Your Generosity in Action with a Gift from Your IRA

If you are 70½ years old or older, you can take advantage of a simple way to benefit University of Idaho and receive tax benefits in return. You can give up to $105,000* from your IRA directly to a qualified charity such as ours without having to pay income taxes on the money.

Why Consider This Gift?

- Your gift will be put to use today, allowing you to see the difference your donation is making at the University of Idaho.
- You pay no income taxes on the gift. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you benefit even if you do not itemize your deductions.
- If you already must take required minimum distributions (RMDs), or will have to at age 73, your IRA charitable rollover gift can satisfy all or part of your annual RMD.

To make an Individual Retirement Account Qualified Charitable Distribution gift to the University of Idaho Foundation:

- 1) Complete the attached form: Letter from donor to IRA Administrator
- 2) Submit the completed form to your Financial Advisor or IRA Administrator
- 3) Submit a copy of the completed form to the University of Idaho Foundation so that we can ensure that your gift is processed in an accurate and timely manner.
